ESSAYS: Please prepare two thoughtfully composed, typed essays. These essays will help the Honors Council learn about you and your goals, and if you become a member of the program, they will become part of your Honors file.

Essay One: (300 words)

Why would you like to be a member of the PCC Honors Program? Your response may include discussion of what effect the Honors program might have on your future activities/roles/ goals, and what you hope to learn from, and contribute to such a program.

Essay Two: (A or B only 150 words)

- a. What person, event, incident, or piece of writing, made a significant impact on your life, helping to shape you into the kind of person who would be a good citizen of the world (and honors candidate)?

- b. Imagine you could have lunch with any famous person (dead or currently living). Whom would you choose and why? Explain how you think your conversation would proceed.

Submit both essays with your completed application.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

1. List any Awards, Honors you have received.

2. Tell us about your creative activities and interests

3. What leadership experiences or community involvement have you had?

What relevant work experiences have you had?

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION AND TRANSCRIPTS:

Please submit at least two but no more than three letters of recommendation from people who are familiar with your intellectual ability, creativity and commitment to academic work. List their names, titles, and organizations here.
