

Grammar

Simple present: Additions with and... , too / and...not , either
Affirmative		Negative
Lili works in a bank,	and	I you we they	do, too.
		he she	does, too.
Trang doesn't live in Denver,	and	I you we they	don't, either.
		he she	doesn't, either.

1 PRACTICE

A Complete the sentences. Match the sentence beginnings and endings.

- |   |                     |
|---|---------------------|
| 1.   b   I speak Farsi, and my husband                 | a. doesn't, either. |
| 2.        She lives with her parents, and her brothers | b. does, too.       |
| 3.        They don't live in an apartment, and we      | c. do, too.         |
| 4.        Pablo doesn't work in an office, and Ursula  | d. don't, either.   |

Grammar Watch

- Use too for affirmative sentences.
- Use not, either for negative sentences.
- Use a comma before too and either.

B Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

do, too    does, too    doesn't, either    don't, either

- Mark has two nephews, and Jason   does, too  .
- They don't work on weekends, and we _____.
- My son doesn't live with me, and my daughter _____.
- My wife works for her father, and my brothers-in-law _____.
- Todd and Mikah don't have any children, and we _____.
- Her sisters-in-law live on Walnut Street, and her father-in-law _____.
- I don't have any brothers, and Melanie _____.
- My husband works long hours, and I _____.
- Marilyn doesn't live in the city, and her sisters _____.

2 PRACTICE

PAIRS. Look at the Nash family. How are the people similar?

WRITE. Write six sentences about the people. Use too and either. Use a separate piece of paper.

Douglas has gray hair, and Emily does, too.
 Brian doesn't live in Vancouver, and Brad doesn't, either.

Show what you know! Talk about what people have in common

STEP 1. Complete the questions. Use your own ideas.

Do you have any family in _____?
 Do you live in _____? Do you work in _____?

STEP 2. GROUPS OF 5. Student A, read one question from Step 1. Other students, answer the question. Give true information.

Tia: Do you have any family in Chicago?
 Jan: Yes, my brother lives in Chicago.

STEP 3. Tell the class about what the people in your group have in common. Use too and either.

Jan has family in Chicago, and I do, too. In-Ho lives . . .

Can you... talk about what people have in common?