

Write a postcard to a friend or someone in your family. Tell them what you are doing in the United States. Use simple present (for things you do regularly) and present progressive (for things you are doing now).

Dear Mom and Dad,

I'm doing well in Portland, Oregon. I like it here. The sun is coming out most days. I am working as a delivery driver now. I work 10 hours a day, four days a week. I like my job. I am studying English at Portland Community College. I am learning a lot. I'm attending a free English conversation class at the public library, too. It is helpful to practice speaking.

I miss you all. I hope I can visit you soon.

Love,

Jana
