Communication Guidelines:

Best Way to Contact me

Communicate by using the D2L Brightspace e-mail system which can be accessed from the Classlist. You can use it to send an e-mail to your instructor and/or classmates.

You must include a relevant subject in the "Subject:" or "RE:" section of your e-mail. The subject must include the class you are taking, your name, and the topic of your message.

Example email subject line: DL213-Chapter3-Problem 3-46

If your question or comment would be of interest to other students, please post it to the Discussions area. This way other participants can help answer questions, and all participants will benefit from the answers. Please refer to the information on "netiquette" in the introductory module for guidelines governing the content of written communications. Your first communication assignment is to introduce yourself in the discussion topic "Introductions."

Response from Instructor

I will be checking email in D2L Brightspace daily on weekdays. If you contact me by email and don't give me a proper subject, expect a delay or no response. Email sent on weekdays will be answered within 24 hours. Email sent over the weekend will be answered the following Monday.

First Week Participation

During the first week of the term instructors must identify students who are enrolled but not engaged in a class. These are referred to as "No Show" students and will be dropped from the class as per PCC's G302 Grading Guidelines policy.

In order to avoid being dropped as a "No Show" student you must register on the MyAccountingLab site no later than 11:59 PM on Tuesday, October 2.

Course Description

Covers accounting information from management perspective for planning, performance evaluation and for decision making purposes. Includes cost concepts, product costing, cost-volume-profit relationships, profit planning, variance analysis, responsibility accounting and capital budgeting. Prerequisite: BA 211.

Learning Outcomes

1. Incorporate and use basic managerial accounting terminology and concepts in a business environment and communicate effectively.
2. Apply an understanding of cost concepts for product costing and to analyze relevant costs.
3. Understand the nature of costs and apply to cost-volume-profit relationships and activity based costing.
4. Apply budgeting for business planning and standard costs to perform variance analysis.
5. Use knowledge of responsibility accounting to evaluate and measure business performance.
6. Apply an understanding of capital budgeting for decision making.

For more information, please see the specific BA 213 Course Outcomes from the PCC Course Content and Outcome Guide.

Instructional Approach

This course is arranged chronologically and employs a modular design. Each week, students should complete all assignments listed in that week's lesson module. These modules will appear directly on the homepage during the week they are due, and are also available by clicking "Content" on the course navigation bar.

Due dates for each week's assignments will be shown on the home page as an Announcement, as well as in the Course Calendar which is also available in the Content area. Assignments within the modules will direct students to the MyAccountingLab homework manager.

Assignments

For more information, please go to the PCC Grading Guidelines.

Practice Assignments (Week 1)

During the first week of the term I will assign two simple exercises (ungraded). These exercises are designed to help you learn how to use some of the communication tools within D2L. The exercises include:

1. Introduce Yourself (using the Discussions tool)
2. Send Me an Email Message (using the Classlists tool)

Problems from the text

For each chapter I will assign some problems from the text. To help you prepare for the homework assignment, I will also provide an ungraded PRACTICE problem (similar problem with different data) that you can attempt as many times as you like.

Quizzes

There are 11 multiple choice quizzes (1 for each chapter). Each quiz contains 10 multiple choice questions worth 1 point each. . You will have 60 minutes to complete each quiz.

Exams

Students will take a Midterm Exam (covering Chapters 1 - 4, 6 and 7) and a Final Exam (covering Chapters 9 - 12) The exams will contain 45 questions similar to the weekly quizzes (a mix of multiple choice and short problems) worth 6 points each. Students will have 2.5 hours (150 minutes) to complete each exam.

Business and Entrepreneurship Equitable Grading Criteria

The Business & Entrepreneurship Program at PCC has adopted an equitable grading framework to support a growth mindset and evaluate our students based upon their knowledge while improving student access to learning materials and coursework. As your instructor, I am committed to supporting your learning and helping you to be successful in this course. In this course, equity grading will be applied as follows:

- Students will have THREE attempts for each Graded Quiz, THREE attempts for the Graded Problems, and TWO attempts on the Midterm and Final Exams. The highest score will be one recorded in the Grade Book. The Practice Problems (ungraded) have unlimited attempts.
- Late assignments will be accepted for 5 days past the original due date without penalty. The 5 day extension does NOT apply to the Chapter 12 assignments and the Final Exam. No other extensions will be granted.
- All course modules are available at the start of the term

Grading Criteria

Your grade in this course will be based on the material covered. You must enter your grading preference yourself in MyPCC and only letter grades or audits are allowed for business courses at PCC.
