

Portland

Women

in

Art

Lecture

SYMPOSIUM

Friday, May 26, 2017
4 - 6 p.m.

Portland State University,
Art Building, Room 200
2000 SW 5th Ave.
Portland, OR 97217

PSU's Time Arts Club and PCC's
Portland Women in Art Lecture Series
(PWALS) present important women in the visual arts to students and faculty of Portland Community College, Portland State University,
and to a larger Portland audience.
PWALS introduces a symposium format this year and honors local artist and arts advocate Mardy Widman.

Reception to follow. The symposium is free and open to the public.

[www.pcc.edu/about/events/women-in-art/
about](http://www.pcc.edu/about/events/women-in-art/about)

[www.facebook.com/
PWALS/](http://www.facebook.com/PWALS/)

ELIZABETH BILYEU

"WOMEN AND GUNS IN THE VISUAL ARTS"

KELSEY BIRSA

"TRANSCIENCY OF (FEMALE) BODY CONSCIOUSNESS"

RACHEL SIEGEL & DEBORAH LAWRENCE

"EVOLUTION OF AGENT YU"

PRUDENCE ROBERTS

"STITCHING RESISTANCE"

SUE TAYLOR

"A DIFFIDENT AMAZON: HOLLIS SIGLER COMES OUT"

CHRISTINE WEBER

"TOO MANY ARTISTS IN THE KITCHEN"